Celebrating Best Places to Work!

2019
BEST PLACES
TO WORK

Hatch Staffing Services is celebrating four consecutive years of being one of Milwaukee's Best Places to Work! The Milwaukee Business Journal holds this competition each year to recognize Milwaukee-area companies that have a great work culture. Every employee within our company had the opportunity to weigh in and share their feedback on why they believe in the culture at Hatch and why it is truly a Best Place to Work.

Hatch Staffing is honored to be among this prestigious group of companies that were recognized.

Have you heard of HatchTALENT?

It is not news to the Milwaukee community that there is a shortage of talent throughout the area. This shortage often puts added stress on individuals who are already stretched thin. HatchTALENT has the answer to this problem. We offer trained internal staff who are familiar with your business to tackle short or long-term pro-

Our team celebrated at the awards ceremony which took place at The Pfister with over 600 attendees. It was a raucous event that included many fabulous Halloween costumes!

In addition to great networking, lots of cheering and a celebration of the Milwaukee business community, we had the opportunity to celebrate the people behind the scenes with the HR Awards. Ten HR individuals and teams were recognized at the event for contributions made within their organizations.

Hatch Staffing is proud to be among the elite group of organizations that were recognized this year. There is some stiff competition, but overall we are proud to be part of a business community that is focused on not just building profitable companies but also a business that fosters high employee morale, well-being, community involvement and fun. It is true that you can have both in a company and we are excited to once again be one of those workplaces!

Job Searching Advice

When you are looking for a job, it's important to be mindful of all of the tools out there that are available to help you. Resources to help with your job search can be right at your fingertips through your own social media. But be mindful of your social media presence to make sure that you are putting your best foot forward at all times.

Social media makes it easy to stay connected with friends, family and businesses. How you are perceived with your social media presence is important when you are searching for a new job.

LinkedIn is one of the hottest job searching tools available and is right at our fingertips. Being active on LinkedIn can provide you with an advantage over others that may be less active on the platform. If you are targeting a specific company in your job search, stay active by commenting and “liking” their posts.

Make sure that you are auditing your social media platforms early and often. What might have been a fun social outing with friends, may not be appropriate for sharing with the world. You have to assume that your social media will be reviewed by potential employers so make sure that you have your best foot forward at all times. When conducting your own audit, if you are uncertain if a post is appropriate, take it down.

Last, but certainly not least, make sure that you have a professional picture for your LinkedIn profile. It is proven that a LinkedIn profile with an image is forty perfect more likely to be clicked on when it includes a professional headshot. You don't need to go to a photographer, but find a friend, use your phone, choose your clothes wisely and snap away. A high resolution photo brings credibility to your profile and will help you be seen when job searching.

The team at Hatch Staffing Services wants to be a resource to you in your job search. We will provide you with the tools to be successful. Don't delay and contact us today to take the first step to your new career!

What's Coming Up!

I'm sure you've noticed by now that we have changed our typically orange newsletter over to purple. We did this because November 1st marks the start of Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month. Three team members of the Hatch team have been directly affected by the devastating affects of Pancreatic Cancer and it is for this reason that we dedicate the month to raise awareness for those that are still fighting, those yet to be diagnosed and those we have lost. We invite you to join us throughout the month at events that will be held in the Milwaukee area. Show your support throughout November as well by wearing purple and sharing your pictures with us on our social media!
